HUTCHINSON A WINNER

He Beats the Board of Health at Last.

THE TWELVE MEN AGREED

After But a Minute's Debate in the Jury Room—Not Guilty on First Ballot—The Testimony Showed Hutchinson in a Bad Fix, and the Jury Thought so Too. Plenty of Costs.

Now let the members of the city council smile. The case of the board of health versus Charles Hutchinson is over and the board is beaten.

Those who were at the trial yesterday afternoon predicted such a verdict, and when the jury went out at 6 o'clock few believed that they would favor the sanitary authorities. They did not delay supper many minutes, and the first vote taken settled the question. Every man thought Hutchinson had been imposed on and that the board of health had been too hasty in his case, and so the verdict was "not guilty." The verdict caused little surprise around city hall, as the evidence went to show that Hutchinson was not only a victim of circumstances but evidently of the sanitary authorities, and his witnesses swore so positively that the health officer had agreed to sewer that they succeeded in scoring a big point for the defense. If the costs bill looked large to the mayor in the morning, it assumed gigantic proportions when it was fully realized that the city would have to foot the expenses, although there was some slight satisfaction in the fact that the city didn't have to fine itself, even if it was beaten.

Before the court began taking testimony it was proposed by Attorney Brookes that the jury visit the National House, but as Mrs. Hutchinson was seriously ill this idea was finally abandoned.

Health Officer J. T. King was the first witness called. He visited the place and made investigation in July 1893 and again in July and September of 1894, and served notice upon the proprietor each time. The condition of the vault was, he said, bad, and was within four inches of being filled up to four feet of the top. The place was then as now used as a hotel but witness did not know how many boarders they had. The vault on the lower floor was connected with the upper stories by a board passage, a sort of funnel shaped arrangement, and after being cleaned out and filled up it had been used as a vault and also as a place to dump garbage.

During cross-examination by Mr. Brookes the attorney asked Mr. King if he had left Hutchinson's place in the condition he would like a similar officer to leave his own home, but he found it hard to get an answer, but finally the officer said positively that he had left the place in a good and proper condition. After Mr. King had left the stand the solicitor called him back, and he said he had acted under a resolution passed by the board of health.

"Did you not also act under orders of individual members? Is it not true that when Mark Huston says yea, it matters not what the ordinances provide?" asked Attorney Brookes, and a roar of laughter followed.

Then Otto Schmidbauer, the nightsoiler, was called. He said the vault had been a bad one, and he cleaned it out and filled it up level with the alley. He left a space of about two feet between the earth and boards above it.

The first witness for the defense was C. A. Hutchinson. He gave a history of the case, telling of the time when Mr. Huston introduced Mr. King to him in '93. "After we had enjoyed ourselves a few minutes," said the witness, "we adjourned to the rear of the house and examined the vault, and afterward went over the balance of the building." This caused another laugh. Hutchinson ended his testimony by stating that the place had until the time of cleaning out been disinfected every two weeks.

George Harker and C. A. Hutchinson, Jr., testified as to the agreement of the health officer to sewer and charge it up as taxes.

Councilman Marshall testified that he had waited on Mrs. Hutchinson during her illness, and had seen the vault, but did not think there had been any nuisance.

Councilman Owen said he had been called in, and saw the condition of the vault after cleaning.

Councilman Horwell testified that he had never been in the place until recently, when Hutchinson called him in and showed him the vault. He thought it was a wood shed until told what it was. The defense asked the same question as had been put to Mr. King about "a proper condition," but Mr. Clark objected, saying the witness could not give expert testimony. He answered it, however, saying he did not think the condition proper. The solicitor cross-questioned him sharply, and, among other things, asked him if he had ever been a member of the board of health. He said no, and as Mr. Brookes remarked, sarcastically, "If he had been he'd known it all," the crowd had a chance to laugh again.

Councilman Marshall was recalled and testified that if the place was left disinfected it would not be dangerous to health. There would be no necessity in filling it up with earth.

Councilman Swindells testified that he had seen the vault early in December after it had been filled up. Hutchinson had called him in. He described it like the others.

Mr. Owen was recalled and said he didn't think such a place as Hutchinson's would be left in proper order.

This concluded the testimony at 4:30 o'clock, and the solicitor began his argument at once. The verdict was brought in shortly after 6 o'clock, but was heard by only a few, who had time enough to see the battle to the end.

FOR A NEW ARMOY.

The Commissioners Are Making Arrangements.

The boys of Company E will be glad when they learn that the commissioners have taken up their cause, and are arranging for a new armory modeled after improved plans.

Commissioners Rye, McIntosh and Phillips came to town last night, and set out bright and early this morning to investigate what the company needed. After hearing suggestions they had a talk with the commissioned officers when the matter was thoroughly discussed. The commissioners visited the armory at city hall and viewed the Fifth street rink. To a News Review man they expressed themselves as anxious to see the company placed on a good footing, with equally good quarters for the use of officers and men. After spending all morning they again took up the thread this afternoon, and are earnestly engaged at the Thompson House. They viewed Bradshaw hall, but found it too small for a drill hall and armory combined. They also viewed the Brunt Opera House, but have not yet secured the figures. If the rink is rented for a drill hall lockers will be built at city hall, but the commissioners would like to see the drill hall and armory combined. The old armory at East Palestine will be sold. A new building for that purpose alone, one of the commissioners believed, was out of the question at present.

WITH A KNIFE.

James Pope Fears His Father-in-Law, J. L. Deidrick.

James Pope this morning filed an affidavit in the office of Mayor Gilbert, stating that his father-in-law, Jos. L. Deidrick, threatened to do him bodily injury with a knife, and he feared that he would be hurt. A peace warrant was also made out, in which the claimant says that he fears Deidrick will beat, or shoot and kill him. If this is signed by the accused there will be no need to serve the warrant. The whole matter grew out of a row this morning which attracted no end of attention in the vicinity of Robinson street and Broadway.

They Found the Deed.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISON, Jan. 11.—The case of W. R. McKinnon against Martha Burford came to a sudden termination in court yesterday afternoon. The litigation involved the title to the ground on which is located the Josiah Thompson pottery in East Liverpool it being alleged that no deed was ever made. Diligent search revealed a deed made 60 years ago by John Babb, and which has never since seen the light of day.

The case is of interest to many people in the city since it was a test case involving the title to the land on Thompson hill, and the ground owned by the Thompson heirs. The suit settles forever the title of the land, and places it directly in the hands of the Thompson estate. A great deal of money is involved.

Freight By the Ton.

The river began to rise last night after falling about 15 feet, but the rate was so low that there seemed no danger of it attaining a dangerous height. The Iron Queen passed down last night with one of the largest trips of the season taking on 20 casks of ware at this point to increase the load. When the boat left Pittsburgh there was a cargo of 780 tons on board, with much more to come at Wheeling and other points.

HIS IDEA OF FINANCE

The Prophet of Pisgah Gives Some Views.

WHAT CONGRESS SHOULD DO

The Time For Protest Has Arrived and the People Should Protest—A Characteristic Document From the Ready Pen of Daniel J. Smith.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—If ever there was a time in the history of our country, when the producers of the wealth, the farmers, manufacturers and laborers, in all kinds of useful industries, should speak out and express their views on the base and treacherous methods being used to destroy the underlying principles of our government, in the last and present congress, by a set of reckless freebooters, who have no regard for the oaths they have taken to uphold and defend the great magna charta of the free people of the United States, it is now. They, by their acts of legislation, are making the principles of that sacred document abortive, and a failure in producing the intended effects contemplated by the good, wise, unselfish, and patriotic men who formulated it, and pledged their lives, fortunes and sacred honor to establish and uphold it, believing it would promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty for themselves and their posterity.

The first principle that the last congress violated is the following, which the Constitution gives: "The congress shall have power to lay and collect tax duties, imports and excises, to pay the debts, and provide for the common defense, and promote the general welfare of the United States." They failed to exercise the power granted them, and made obligatory by the Constitution, to lay and collect sufficient duties on imports to pay the running expenses of the general government and keep reducing the public debt, thereby strengthening our national credit, which was the bounden duty in times of peace. But the present representatives, by refusing to legislate in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, have caused national indebtedness, and have sought by unlawful and unconstitutional measures, which are also unjust, to make up the deficiency, which was the passage in time of peace of the unjust income tax law, a method of taxation not contemplated by the framers of our Constitution, but may have been by the men who framed the Confederate constitution at Montgomery. The heroes that formulated the United States Constitution made as the subjects of national taxation the products of other nations, because it would be uniform, and cause those who sold the products of labor and capital of other countries, and those who bought the same in preference to the products of our own labor and capital, to pay all of our national tax for the privilege of so doing; and free our own capital and labor from national taxation, as the properties, moneys and incomes of our wealth producers have to pay all of our state and municipal taxes, and defend our country in the time of war, for the privilege of selling the products of our country in our own market. Justice demands payment by foreigners of our national taxes for the privilege of selling their products in our market, as it is the best in the world; and American capital and the wealth producers—laborers—have taxed themselves high to make the market. Our highest local tax is for school purposes, which is making our people, as a mass, more intelligent, and the more learned and civilized we become, the greater and more numerous are our wants and necessities, to be supplied by labor and capital. We, as a people, have, by reason of our superior civilization, ten thousand more wants than the original inhabitants of the United States, and more, perhaps, than any other nation on the earth. Many things that are luxuries with other nations are necessities with us, and must, and will be supplied, if money, skill and labor can do it. But what we are now after, is to know what the present congress has done and left undone. They should be as severely condemned for what they have neglected to do as for what they have done. That is God's rule—"Because ye did it not you shall be damned, or cast into outer darkness"—and we should apply the same rule to the present congress. They neglected to lay the proper duties on imports to pay the running expenses and decrease the national indebtedness, and strengthen public credit. What they have done, is to violate their oaths of office in refusing to exercise their right to lay and collect sufficient duties from imports, and by passing an odious and unjust income tax law in time of peace. Incomes should be taxed for state and municipal government, but not for national. They have created a national indebtedness, and caused the necessity for the sale of interest-bearing bonds to hold gold in the treasury—all in the interest of a lot of gold autocrats and conspirators, having their head in England, and the balance of the treasonable gang in Wall street, New York, with their aiders and abettors in the congress of the United States. This conspiracy carried on by the gold gamblers is an assault upon the credit of the United States. In my opinion, it is a more damnable species of treason against the material interest of our people than armed and open treason, and should be crushed by the government in a lawful manner, or it will be by the wealth producers and loyal men of this country, who will not permit the overthrow of our Constitution and allow the credit of our country to be outraged by a lot of selfish gold bugs. The people, when they see what is being attempted, will take a hand, and when they do, there will soon be a lot of buyers less in the halls of congress, who have been aiding in bringing the present condition upon the country by their unlawful and unconstitutional acts.

D. J. SMITH,
Mount Pisgah.

P. S.—Washington says in his farewell address: "In proportion as the structure of government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened. As a very important source of strength and security, cherish public credit. One method of preserving it is to use it as sparingly as possible, avoiding occasion of expense and cultivating peace; but remembering also that timely disbursements to prepare for danger frequently prevent much greater disbursements to repel it, avoiding likewise the accumulation of debt—not only by shunning occasions of expense, but by vigorous exertions in time of peace to discharge the debts which unavoidable wars may have occasioned; not ungenerously throwing upon posterity the burden which we ourselves ought to bear." If we had representatives in the halls of congress full of the wisdom and common sense shown and expressed in the quotation from Washington, instead of the mistakes we have, far happier and contented would be the lives of our countrymen.

FLINN GOT AWAY.

Took the Train, White Officers Watched a Boat.

John Flinn was badly wanted by the police yesterday, but he succeeded in getting away.

George Schaffer appeared in the court of Squire Travis and made complaint against Flinn, stating that the man had assaulted him. According to the story, Flinn came from Parkersburg yesterday, and when Schaffer went home for supper some one hit him at the gate. Upon turning he recognized his man, and made the information. The warrant was placed in the hands of Officer Badgley, and he went with Officer Welsh to the wharfbark expecting that he would take the Iron Queen. He took the train, however, and Officer Badgley traced him to Bellaire, but there the trail was lost. Flinn will likely keep outside of Ohio for a few months.

What Chambers Thinks.

Henry Chambers, of the East End, the well known member of the board of affairs regarding the river road, and expressed it to a News Review reporter this morning. "The old river road," said the gentleman, "should be abandoned, as it will eventually have to be. A new road should be located on the hill, intersecting with the county road at Ralston's crossing. The present hill road would never do. Its bed is one of clay, where about 15 feet lower would find a bed of shale which would never become impassable."

Mr. Chambers once put a shaft some 57 feet in the hill and knows the kind of ground there.

The Last of the Rose Case.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISON, Jan. 11.—The last of the case of Charles Rose against Philip Morley came with the announcement that it had been settled out of court. The plaintiff pays all the costs, and the matter ends. It will be remembered that Rose asked $10,000 as damages.

Got a Judgment.

Fred Oschman got judgment in the court of Squire Travis for $125.05 against Thomas Abrams, and the goods were seized by Constable Albright yesterday. They will be sold as soon as advertised.

OUR HOUSE IN SIGHT

The Public Building Matter Moves a Little.

SEVENTYFIVE THOUSAND PLUNKS

A Committee in Congress Recommends That a Bill be Passed Giving East Liverpool What It Needs so Badly—The Amount Would Give a Good Building.

A special from Washington this morning contains the information that the government building for East Liverpool is a little more than the vague possibility it has always seemed.

When the house committee on public buildings looked over the batch of business on hand yesterday they decided to report favorably for a structure in this city the cost of which is to be $75,000. While this does not seem a great deal on the face it means that the matter will go before congress, and if any appropriations are made it is not at all unlikely that this city will come in for its share of the money given out. There are a number of good sites where the structure could be located, and it is generally understood that one of the best sites in the city is being reserved by its owner for this purpose.

You Are Too Late, Friends.

The Steubenville papers have but recently discovered that the striking tin plate men of Irondale wanted to erect a plant at some point along the Ohio, and are urging capitalists to secure the plant for that town. You are too late, friends, and have missed your opportunity. The Liverpool board of commerce have been working on that scheme since last August, and only discovered a few days ago that the money power back of the strikers had decided not to go into the business just now.

Postmaster Miskall Confirmed.

When glancing at a morning paper while seated in the office of the News Review this morning, M. E. Miskall discovered that he had been confirmed yesterday by the senate, and was beyond a doubt the next postmaster of East Liverpool. The intelligence was extremely gratifying to the newly appointed official, who will make preparations to take up the duties of his office as soon as Postmaster Simms can wind up his business, which will be about the first of the month.

Six Cases of Scarlet Fever.

Health Officer King was today notified of two more cases of scarlet fever, making six children at present suffering from the disease. The last additions to the list are a little daughter of W. A. Weaver, Washington street, and a daughter of M. E. Golding, Fifth street. This number makes more cases of the disease than have been known in the city for some time, but as yet none have proved dangerous.

Jackson Was Fined.

Buck Jackson was captured by the police yesterday afternoon, and was fined $7.00 by Mayor Gilbert which he paid. The charge against him was assault and battery, but he told a straight story, saying that he did not strike Lizzie George, but simply pushed her out of the way. The woman, however, wears a very black eye, and her face is badly swollen showing that the fall was very severe.

Going to Palestine.

George Sebring, of this city, and Rev. John Norris, of Pittsburg, are arranging to make a trip to the Holy Land and other portions of the far east. The gentlemen will sail in about 10 days having already engaged passage on one of the ocean steamers. Reverend Norris has been so ill with lung trouble that it is expected the trip will do him a world of good in a physical way.

The Gas Was Low.

Two big mains carrying Bridgewater gas to this city, one of them in the river, were broken by the recent flood, and have been causing the company no end of trouble these past few days. Customers of the Bridgewater had but little supply today as the gas came by the Rochester line when the others were being repaired. It will be all right tonight.

Potters Meet Monday.

Members of all the local unions of the Brotherhood will meet Monday night to confer about the plan to erect a building. The meeting will be held in Red Men's hall and a large crowd is expected. President Hughes said today that the purpose of the building was purely business, although the reading rooms may be added later.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JAN. 11.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

A WORTHY REFORM.

The county officials who dispense public printing will learn some day that the people demand the publication of important matter in journals of general circulation instead of giving it a place in papers without influence, and which are read by but few people of the community in which they are printed.

The delinquent tax list is among the most important of county publications, and the News Review has been repeatedly asked why this paper did not publish that part relating to East Liverpool and vicinity. The only answer that can be given is that the News Review does not publish advertisements without recompense, and can see no reason why it should give the county a few hundred dollars when other papers are receiving the legal rate for the same work. The advertising columns of the News Review are paid for by merchants, and if the county desires to use them it must pay like any individual.
Coupled with these questions have been protests from many people in the city who can not understand why the Lisbon Buckeye and the Liverpool Tribune are chosen as the official organs of the county. The Buckeye always looks as though it was set by a blacksmith and printed on a Washington hand press with apple butter for ink, and it is a notorious fact that the circulation of the Tribune can be carried to the postoffice in the spacious pockets of the editor's overcoat.
These publications live and grow fat at the public crib, and give the county next to nothing in return. The people are not informed, the object of the law is not carried out, and much inconvenience is the result.

It is the duty of county officials to obey the command of the people, and the people demand that when they pay for information they receive it.
No official is in himself a power, and should not forget that he is subservient to the will of the people, looking to them for support at election time. To the News Review should come the county printing, since it is the leading paper of the city, and the law provides that in every city of over 8,000 inhabitants the work shall go to the leading paper.

Perhaps it would be well for the county officials to remember that East Liverpool is a powerful factor in county politics, and will not longer endure the expenditure of public funds by hiding important printing matter in such fossilized journals as the Buckeye and Tribune, particularly the latter, with its wee, small circulation, and a lack of ability to reach the people, for whom public printing is intended.

Overruled the Demurrer.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 11.—Judge Pugh overruled the demurrer in the Stevenson-Burke $8,000,000 suit. This holds the case in court. Burke wanted it thrown out. The suit is to recover money alleged to have been improperly taken from the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo railroad.

Food Sent to Miners.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 11.—Governor Mc-Kinley has caused $800 worth of food to be shipped to certain miners in the Hocking valley, who are reported by their committees to be in a state of starvation. Nelsonville has raised $500.

To Aid Starving Miners.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 11.—The chamber of commerce has appointed a committee of five, of which W. T. Perkins is chairman, to receive contributions and distribute relief to starving miners in the Hocking valley.

Ordered Sold by the Sheriff.

LORAIN, O., Jan. 11.—The sheriff has been ordered by the court to sell the Hayden brassworks of this place to satisfy a judgment on a mortgage for $271,761.66, held by Colgate Hoyt of New York.

BEAT A TOLEDO MAN.

The Bunco Case In Which Detective
Norris Is Mixed.

TOLEDO, Jan. 11.—Frank Smith, alias Thomas H. Parker, alias "Red" Austin, etc., who is under arrest at Richmond as a goldbrick swindler, and in whose case John T. Norris, the Springfield (O.) detective has become mixed up, is wanted in this city for fleeing John Grohl, a wealthy East St. man.
Smith called on Grohl early in November, 1893. He introduced himself as a long-lost nephew from Nevada.
Smith knew enough of the family history to make his story believed. He had bars of pure gold, he said, and would give his "uncle" a chance to speculate. He said the bars of gold he had with him were worth $21,000. He showed an assayers certificate to that effect. By advancing $10,000 Grohl was assured he could make a nice speculation. He put up $6,696—all he had—got the alleged gold bars, and the next day Smith disappeared. An effort will be made to extradite him.

Ladies Will Issue the Paper.

TIFFIN, O., Jan. 11.—Ladies well known in Tiffin's social life will have charge of The Daily Advertiser for one day in the near future, and the proceeds will be devoted to the Old Ladies' home.
The reportorial staff will consist of Tiffin's most talented young ladies, and the way they will "do" the police court and cover the town in general for local news will be one of the most interesting features. They will have charge of all departments of the paper for that day.
The first edition of the paper will be printed on silk, to be sold to the highest bidder, and it is stated that over 4,000 copies will be printed.

Masked Men Rob a Safe.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Jan. 11.—Seven masked men blew open the safe in the Belmont brewery and secured $300.
They seized John Broomey, the night-watchman, at a side door, took his revolver and keys, gagged him, carried him outside and made him show them the office. They then bound his hands and legs and wrapped him in a blanket.
One man guarded him while the others blew open the safe. One of the safe doors was blown through a window and all the windows were shattered.

Secret Orders Interdicted.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 11.—Archbishop Elder has promulgated the order against Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance, and accompanied the text of the order with a statement of reasons why good Catholics should obey. One was that to belong to those orders means Catholics more tolerant of Freemasonry, which had long been declared inimical to the church. Another was that in the case of the Knights of Pythias a pagan is selected to be treated as a saint.

No. 454.
A ORDINANCE TO ASSESS A SPECIAL tax on the real estate bounding and adjoining on Sheridan avenue, from the west line of West Market street to the west line of Fenton street, and to issue bonds in the collection of such assessments.
Sec. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, that to provide money to pay the cost and expense of improving Sheridan avenue from the west line of West Market street to the west line of Fenton street, together with the interest on bonds issued, according to the estimate of the engineer, there be levied and assessed on the several lots of land bounding and adjoining on Sheridan avenue, between the points above named, and as they were more fully described in Ordinance 450 of city ordinances, said ordinance being an ordinance to improve Sheridan avenue, and passed by council August 14, 1904, for each frontage of said lots, the sum hereinafter named for each and every year specified to wit: For the year 1905, 43 35-100 cents; for the year 1906, 43 35-100 cents; for the year 1907, 43 35-100 cents; for the year 1908, 43 35-100 cents.
Sec. 2. That the owners of the several lots of land herein assessed shall pay the amount of money by them severally due in that behalf to the city clerk on or before the first day of September of each year of said several years, and in the default of such payment the city clerk shall forthwith certify all unpaid assessments to the county auditor to be placed on the general tax duplicate to be levied and collected in accordance with law.
Sec. 3. In anticipation of the collection of such assessments, and to provide money for the immediate payment of the cost and expense of improving Sheridan avenue, there be authorized to issue four bonds of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, in the sum of $100,000 dollars, payable in one year from the date thereof, one bond for three hundred and seventy-five ($375.00) dollars, payable in two years from the date thereof; one bond for four hundred ($400.00) dollars, payable in three years from the date thereof; and one bond for four hundred and twenty-four ($424.00) dollars, payable in four years from the date thereof. Said bonds shall be designated "Sheridan Avenue Improvement Bonds" and made payable at the city treasurer's office of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually and shall be signed by the aforesaid city officials and sold by the city treasurer and the proceeds thereof shall be placed in the city treasury, and applied by council to the cost and expense of improving the said Sheridan avenue and to no other purpose whatever, and for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, the revenue and faith, and all the real and personal property of said city are hereby pledged, provided that if before the sale of said bonds any of the property owners on said street will pay the whole of said installments in cash, less the interest on deferred installments, the amount so paid in cash shall be applied to the payment of the cost and expense of making said improvement, and the amount of the bonds to be issued shall be reduced by deducting the amount so paid in cash from the total amount of money to be provided, and the bonds to be issued shall provide money for the unpaid remainder, payable with interest at the times and in the manner aforesaid.
Sec. 4. That said annual assessments, when collected, shall be placed in the sinking fund and applied to the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon as the same shall become due, and to no other purpose whatsoever.
Passed this 5th day of January, 1905.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

William Harrison is convalescent after a severe attack of bronchitis.
The Gladeaskers, an organization of society young ladies, are the guests of Mrs. Al Mason this afternoon.
The West End pottery, which has been idle for some time, will start up with almost a full force Monday.
Matthew Mills' little child is suffering with an attack of bronchitis at the family residence, Trentvale street.
Mrs. John Reed, of California hollow, who has been ill for some time with a complication of diseases, is improving slowly.
George Huston, one of the solid farmers of Madison township, has leased his farm for five years, and about April 1 will move to this city.
The Pennsylvania company officials are arranging to do away with the reduced rate to ministers. The Cleveland & Pittsburgh is one of the roads affected.
Tony Bertele is in receipt of word from his daughter, a member of the Girl's band, noting their safe arrival at Buffalo. They gave their first concert last evening.
There was a big row in a Robinson street residence this morning, during the progress of which a woman was heard to scream that she had been struck with a shovel.
The little child of Rev. John Norris, who has been here from Pittsburg, was taken ill at the Sebring residence, Third street, where the family is visiting, but is improving.
There are no prisoners at city hall today, but Mayor Gilbert is waiting for some of the regulars to appear.
He has the workhouse contract now, and he can face them without the consternation of a few weeks ago.
There is more talk of the railroad across the country than has been heard in years, and farmers along the proposed route expect to see the project carried out next year. It is said that the examination of the coal fields has proved eminently satisfactory.
The case of Clay Gould versus the East Liverpool Pottery company for $300 will come up at city hall before Squire Travis on Wednesday next at 9 o'clock, with the following jury:
Dr. J. W. Gardner, S. J. Cripps, G. C.
Murphy, W. A. Hill, Alex Magram and E. J. Owen.
When the list of names for jurors in the Hutchison case was called out yesterday afternoon it was found that there was a dead man among them. John A. Thompson was the name and it has been so long since it went into the box that nobody about city hall remembers it.
The water continues so high at the Wellsville trestle that workmen can not make the necessary repairs, and cars are unable to cross the dangerous bridge. Passengers are transferred, and motormen are compelled to stand upon the unprotected platforms, which make the trips anything but pleasant.
S. S. Kelley, of Wellsville, has in his possession a bronze medal which was found on the streets of this city.
It was presented by West Virginia to William H. Hurkins, Company E, Thirteenth Infantry. As Mr. Kelley would like to return the medal to the rightful owner he can have it by proving property.
Word from Columbus says that Jesse McGregor takes his sentence in the quiet, philosophical manner which marked his course when a prisoner at the county jail. He will not be compelled to work at present as many convicts have nothing to do, and all the recruits to the force are kept in idleness. The East Liverpool contingent will be treated in like manner.
Mayor Gilbert and Chief Gill are proud as proud can be because the new furniture for police court has arrived, and makes the place a vast improvement over the old quarters up stairs. The new rooms will compare favorably with any in this part of the world. Water pipes are being put into the rooms to be occupied by Engineer George, who will move in as soon as possible.
The harrowing tales of poverty and suffering which come every day from the coal district of the Hocking valley have moved the hearts of some charitable people in town, and a movement for the raising of funds to be sent them may be put on foot in the near future. As one merchant said, it would be advisable for some of the churches or missionary societies to make the first move.
If the practice of selling liquor to boys is not discontinued there is a probability that more saloonkeepers will be returned by the next grand jury than has been known in many months. In the pocket of a boy who was injured not long ago was found a half pint bottle filled with blackberry brandy, and other lads who were in the crowd are thought to have had more of the stuff in their possession.
Perhaps liquor was the cause of the fatal accident.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading printing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The lenses used in the cheap goods are of the lowest quality and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Continued use of these poor lenses will result in positive injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the case.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—W. J. Locke is in Homestead on business.
—Colin Kinsey is visiting his mother in Georgetown, Pa., today.
—H. A. Weeks took the night train for a business trip to Boston.
—James Nelson, of Broadway, left this morning for Charleston, S. C.
—Rev Foutts went to Salineville yesterday afternoon, called there by the illness of relatives.
—Charles Blackmore, formerly with J. R. Warner, returned from Cleveland today, and went to Smith's Ferry.
—Fred Davis and Miss Schrecke, of Lucyville, Pa., returned home today after attending the funeral of Henry Davis.

To Our Readers.

You will make note of the business change on Sixth street, No 206, Mr. A. C. Bradshaw, our well known townsman, retiring from the grocery trade, Mr. D. M. McLane purchasing his stock and fixtures. Mr. McLane is a young man, whose home has been at West Point, this county. He has been attending Westminster, Pa., college for the past few years, and this is his start in practical business life. He comes to us with the best of recommendations. His brothers, M. J., and J. T., will be associated with him in the grocery business. The News Review wishes Mr. McLane success and prosperity.

May Make a Test Case.

Among the names drawn for the jury in the case of Gould versus the East Liverpool pottery is that of Sylvester Cripps, and there may be some legal proceedings in the matter. Mr. Cripps is a contributing member of Company E, and as such is exempt from jury duty, being one of 16 business men who enlisted. Squire Travis takes exception to the matter because the proper forms have not been observed, and may make a test case of it. The list of names should have been filed with Clerk King at Lisbon.

An Interesting Installation.

Past Councillor Irwen Dunlap installed the new officers of Pride of the East council, Junior Mechanics, last night, with great ceremony. After the business was over the Mechanics and their friends proceeded to make merry, and dancing was the order of the occasion. A dainty lunch was served, and the amusements continued until a late hour. The Juniors are prosperous and happy, and bear the proud distinction of being one of the most hospitable societies in town.

Jane Is the Leader.

"Jane," the superb comedy which comes to the Grand tomorrow evening, makes no pretension of being serious or sincere. It rushes along in its own amusing way piling up absurd situations and ludicrous incidents, and telling the story of a spendthrift who attempted to hoodwink his guardian. Complications are produced which would cause a smile to play about the massive countenance of an elephant.

A Mammoth Paper.

T. O. Timmons, who campaigned with Kit Carson and General Fremont in California, has been forcibly reminded of his life in that country by some of his comrades in the soldiers' home of the state sending him a copy of the San Francisco Chronicle. It is one of the finest souvenir editions ever issued in the country, and contains a wealth of California information.

Adolph Stein's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Adolph Stein will take place on Sunday afternoon, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery after services at St. Aloysius church at 2 o'clock. The Musical union, of which he was a member, will attend in a body, and it is thought the mouldmakers will do likewise.

Some of the Sick.

A son of B. Rowe is ill with a dangerous attack of pneumonia.
Mrs. Jacob DeTemple is convalescent after an illness produced by typhoid fever.

Another Stranger.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schauk, Third street—a son.

Morganfield Case Being Heard.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 11.—Judge Wilson is hearing the testimony to identify the wounded Morganfield as one of the Aquia Creek train robbers. Two witnesses, the express messenger, Critchfield, and Murray, who were on the car at the time, say that the voice is the same as that of one of the robbers.

A New Druggist.

Frank Rea, Ph. G., a man of several years practical experience as a pharmacist, and recently of Webber's prescription drug store, Canton, has been secured by W. O. Hamilton, and will take his position tomorrow.

Interlined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs turn water like a duck's back and show neither spot nor soil. They are not affected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.

They are the only waterproof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark stamped inside, if you desire perfect satisfaction. Made in all sizes and all styles. If you can't get them at the dealers, we will send sample postpaid, on receipt of price: Collars, 25 cents each. Cuffs, 50 cents pair. State size, and whether you want a stand-up or turned-down collar.

THE CELLULOID COMPANY, 427-29 Broadway, NEW YORK.

Jealousy Causes a Fearful Crime.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Jan. 11.—Wesley Pawling, a well-to-do farmer living about a mile west of New Columbia, went to the house of his mother-in-law, half a mile distant, and induced her to accompany him back home "to witness a grand shooting match." Upon their arrival at the Pawling homestead he took a revolver from his pocket and shot his 4 weeks-old child, killing it instantly. He then fired at his wife, inflicting a serious but not fatal wound. Immediately after the shooting he went to the barn and hanged himself. Jealousy is thought to have been the cause of the crime.

Crispi's Daughter Married.

NAPLES, Jan. 11.—The civil marriage of Signorina Josephine, daughter of Prime Minister Crispi, to Prince Lingualossa, was celebrated in the presence of the ministers of foreign affairs, public works and education and several senators and members of the chamber of deputies. King Humbert telegraphed congratulations to Premier Crispi, and also expressed his wishes for the happiness of the couple.

Ran Clear Through the Train.

MASSILLON, O., Jan. 11.—At Lodi, O., a limited express train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad crashed through the center of a freight train on the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, overturning several loaded coal cars. Beyond being badly shaken, the passengers escaped injury. The express was running at a high rate of speed, and had not the locomotive struck squarely between two cars the wreck would have been a terrible one.

Identified as Price's Murderer.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 11.—At the county jail Thomas Grant, a prisoner held on suspicion, has been identified by Mrs. W. H. Price, wife of the business man who was murdered on the night of Dec. 11, as one of the burglars who shot her husband. Mrs. Price picked Grant out from among several other prisoners and said she was quite sure Grant was one of the burglars who killed her husband.

New Ohio Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The senate in executive session confirmed the following Ohio postmasters: Thomas T. Brady at Beresford, Michael J. Alten at Lorain, Kora F. Briggs at Tiffin, G. M. Russell at Plain City, M. E. Miskell at East Liverpool, Daniel H. Gaumer at Zanesville, Matthew W. Briggs at Forest, Simon Richardson at Spencerville.

Three Oil Men Killed.

TOLEDO, Jan. 11.—Three oil men have been instantly killed on the Prosser farm, three miles west of Wapakoneta. Frank Logan, John Pettigrew and W. J. McMalley endeavored to thaw out 100 quarts of frozen nitro glycerine with hot water, when it exploded, tearing them all into fragments, together with a team of horses.
